LOCAL BRIEFS.

Landlord Edward came over from Maricopa last night.

H. E. Kemp & Co., yesterday received a carload of mining machinery.

Among the south side visitors in town last night was Chas. T. Hayden of Tempe.

L. P. Bartley agent for a San Francisco tea and coffee house of San Francisco is in the city.

An entertainment will be given by the ladies of the Catholic church in the opera house April 3.

The Phoenix Electric Street Car company yesterday received a summer car and a sprinkling car.

There will be services this morning at 10:30 o'clock at Trinity church conducted by Bishop Kendrick.

Frank Cortell whose term in the county jail for petit larceny expired yesterday is again a free man.

The train from Maricopa was three hours late yesterday morning on account of a delayed eastbound Southern Pacific train.

License to marry was issued yesterday by Mr. G. B. Gordon, attorney for Juan Flores, against the Union mine. This is the mining property that was sold a few weeks ago under mortgage by Messrs. Kemp and Christy.

Franklin & Franklin yesterday moved their law offices from rooms 7 and 8 to rooms 11 and 12, Monihon building, fronting Washington street.

The stairs leading to the upper offices of the Fleming block have been provided with solid brass step tips of home manufacture, being the product of the Standard Iron works of Phoenix.

An injunction suit was begun in district court yesterday by Guernia Bianchi against R. E. Farrington to restrain the defendant from taking water from a ditch in which the plaintiff is interested.

There is now a rapid eastward movement of tourists on account of the announcement of peace between the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe. About thirty of Phoenix's transient population left the city last night.

A laborer's lien was filed yesterday by Mr. G. B. Gordon, attorney for Juan Flores, against the Union mine. This is the mining property that was sold a few weeks ago under mortgage by Messrs. Kemp and Christy.

Notices of the locations of the following mining claims were filed yesterday: The Champion in the Cave Creek district by C. E. Philes and T. J. Boyd, the Alpha three and one-half miles south of Phoenix by E. P. S. Andrews and J. D. Ross.

L. Meyer, who has been in the city several days representing the New Orleans Brewing association, left last night. And here is a pointer to temperance workers. Mr. Meyer took out with him orders for twenty-five carloads of beer.

William Harvey, of Denver, who bought some property here a year ago and who returned about February 1, died yesterday of consumption at the Vendome. The body was embalmed by W. H. Smith & Co. and will be sent to Denver tonight.

Mr. Joseph R. Emmons and Miss Nora L. McDonald were married at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. L. P. Nash by Rev. D.

Battin. Both contracting parties are residents of Gila county, the groom of Payson and the bride of Pine.

Mr. Frank Gabbert and Miss Minnie McCay were married last night by Rev. G. L. Pearson. The groom is a young business man of Phoenix so well and favorably known that nothing can be added concerning his worth. The fair bride is also highly esteemed by a very large circle of friends.

Dr. J. E. Flemings started his open air lectures yesterday morning on the Red Corner, continuing again in the afternoon and night. One of the interesting features was the extracting of teeth without pain and if he continues as he has begun he will pull enough to macadamize Washington street.

It was reported yesterday that there was a heavy fall of snow on the desert west of Yuma on Monday. This is looked upon as a meteorological phenomenon, as neither the whites or Indians of that vicinity remember a similar occurrence. The altitude at the point of the snowfall is less than 200 feet above sea level.

The contract for carrying the mails by stage between Phoenix and Prescott by way of Wickenburg and Congress mine was yesterday renewed by S. G. Proffitt agent for G. D. Jackson & Co., of Euston, Fla., to Capt. William George. The contract could not have been awarded to a more thoroughly responsible and competent man.

L. N. Alt, of the Bodega, the new place to be opened under the Phoenix National bank, has returned from San Francisco. He has purchased a fine line of liquors, wines and cigars, which will shortly arrive and on April 1 the Bodega will be thrown open to the public. It will be fitted in luxurious style and only the best goods sold. It will be the finest place between Denver and San Francisco.

The following transfers of real estate were yesterday entered for record: The Arizona Land and Stock Co., to Robert Hunter, deed to lots 10, 11 and 12 in block 31, Churchill's addition, $1,300. Mrs. Joseph was Insane.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., March 21.—The jury in the case of Bella Joseph, charged with the murder of her husband, today returned a verdict that she committed the crime while temporarily insane. Mrs. Joseph shot her husband while he was asleep in bed. He had abused her and lived openly with a disolute woman.

Bimetallists in Convention.

DER MOINES, Ia., March 21.—The interstate bimetallic convention met this morning. The forenoon was devoted to caucusing. Among the prominent delegates here are Governor Rickards, ex-Governor Hansen, Lee Mantle, J. B. Toole, of Montana; A. J. Warner of Ohio, and Capt. Kolb, the free silver candidate for governor of Alabama.

ADAM'S PLEA.

It Was the Woman Who Presented the Apple.

Col. Breckenridge's Line of Defense.

A Mixture of Direct Denials and Guilty Admissions.

What Cannot Be Denied or Palliated Will Be Charged to the Weakness of Human Nature.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Miss Pollard was on the stand for a time today in her case against Breckenridge, but nothing of special interest was brought out. Then the prosecution suddenly announced that they rested their case. This done Miss Pollard at once left the court room showing evidence in the pallor of her countenance of the strain under which she had been laboring.

Col. John T. Shelby, Breckenridge's partner, proceeded to outline the defense. He said: "I am authorized by the defendant to say that he did not seduce her; that it was never made known to him that she ever had any children by him until the filing of this suit last August, nor did he ever under any circumstance make any promise of marriage to her." The counsel declared that Miss Pollard had accused the defendant on the train before he ever knew her. She was then a woman of 20 or 21, and not a mere school girl. She asked him to take her to an entertainment in the evening, herself suggesting a closed carriage. In the course of the ride illicit relations were established, not by seduction but in the way which occurs when a woman is not averse to such things. It was at her suggestion and not his that they went to Sarah Goss' seclusion house.

Shelby said there had been no renewal of illicit relations during the eighteen months ending July 18, 1888, and that Miss Pollard had followed him to Washington and persecuted him with her attentions. This interruption of relations Shelby said, constituted a refutation of Miss Pollard's allegation that in February 1888 she was delivered of a child by Col. Breckenridge. The latter had been compelled under fear of threats of exposure to give Miss Pollard more money than he could spare from his means but still he offered her money if she would go away from the city and fit herself for work.

Denial was made of the allegation that in August 1892 or at any other time the defendant had promised to marry Miss Pollard; he absolutely refused her suggestion in 1892, that she go to Miss Willard's school in Berlin and upon her return he would marry her.

At Mrs. Thomas' house, 25 Lafayette square, she had attempted to shoot him and only by the merest accident had he been able to disarm her. He went to Kentucky without acceding to her demands.

The Plan of Defense.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—It is evident from today's proceedings in the Pollard case that the defense will be partly a denial and partly an explanatory denial that Col. Breckenridge had seduced Madeline Pollard and that she gave birth to a child at Norwood convent. The explanation will be that she trapped him into a promise to marry her on the understanding that the process was only a device by which she was to withdraw from his life and be able to break off her relations with Mrs. Blackburn.

The long continued illicit relations between the two are admitted without excuse or palliation, except a reference to the inherent weakness of human nature but Breckenridge represents that he was often anxious to break them off but was always inveigled into a continuance by the young woman; that she followed him, demanded money from him and compelled him to promise to marry her under threats several times repeated and emphasized by the display of a pistol.

Moreover it is promised to be shown that Miss Pollard's early life had not been one of virtue, before the silver tongued orator crossed her path.

GOVERNOR VS. SHERIFF.

Waite Threatens to Override the Supreme Court.

DENVER, March 21.—The Times said this afternoon that Governor Waite has formed a plan to storm the City Hall on the night the decision of the supreme court is rendered in the matter of his police and fire appointees in case the decision is against him. He suspects the loyalty of his militia and has caused the state game warden to swear in 1,000 deputies who will be furnished with state arms and make the assault. The governor's opponents are fully advised of these preparations and have made every preparation for defense.

Sheriff Burchinell declares that the game warden's deputies shall not be permitted to exercise the powers of deputy sheriffs and he has ordered the arrest of anyone not appointed by him who is found wearing a deputy's badge and carrying concealed weapons. The law says the deputy game warden are possessed of the power of deputy sheriffs only when in possession of warrants legally issued in connection with a violation of the state game laws. The sheriff says that if 1,000 guns were furnished he would have 1,000 men ready to carry them and to preserve the peace.
